FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Henning Jensen Joins OceanConnect

Henning Jensen cites OceanConnect's total offering and entrepreneurial culture as key factors for move.

WHITE PLAINS, NY, July 9, 2007 – OceanConnect CEO Thomas K. Reilly announced today that Henning Jensen has joined OceanConnect, effective immediately.

“We are extremely pleased to welcome Henning to OceanConnect,” said OceanConnect CEO Thomas K. Reilly. “It’s a tribute to our organization that one of the world’s leading bunker traders has chosen to join OceanConnect. Henning’s expertise will benefit our worldwide customers,” Reilly continued. “During Henning’s 20+ years of bunker trading he has spearheaded many new bunker operations. We are very confident that he will be able to repeat his considerable successes in his native Denmark.”

“Our strategic aim has always been to combine the best traditional service with the best technology, offering the greatest value to our customers, owners and suppliers alike. The addition of Henning with his exceptional experience and know-how will bring even more value, maximizing the competitive advantages of OceanConnect,” Reilly said.

“I am elated to join OceanConnect and lead their operations in Scandinavia. It’s exciting to join a strong company with such a promising future,” Jensen said.

About Henning Jensen

Henning spent over 20 years at OW Bunker and Trading, one of the largest bunker suppliers/Traders worldwide. There, he broke new ground opening supply areas and worked tirelessly to grow these areas and to expand the group trading operation.
